

Corrections for Four-Mallet Marimba Playing: A Musical Approach for All Levels
by Nancy Zeltsman (as of 2/24/08)

Pertaining to Revised (2nd) Edition (To be corrected for the 3rd Edition)

- p. 29 (Study #9) Replace the last sentence of the introductory comment with: It is suggested that you play this study a total of about five times, for the challenge of pacing a long, gradual fade-out.
- p. 42 (Study #31) m. 4 Bass clef G should be tied to the G in m. 5.
- p. 50 (Study # 42) 3rd line, 3rd bar A slur should be added to connect the first chord and the A-sharp.
- p. 51 (Study #43) m. 3 The last note (C) should be C-sharp. Delete the sharp from the trill above that note.
- p. 51 (Study #44) m. 2 The last C (2nd-to-last sixteenth note) should be C-sharp. (The sharp on the trill above it IS correct.)
- p. 52 (Study #45) 2nd line, 4th bar Above this bar, add (in small type): (Optional: “2 + 2” roll)
- p. 52 (Study #45) There is a typo in the middle of the footnote. It should be “...mallets form an “L” configuration,...” (i.e. change ‘from’ to ‘form’)
- p. 53 (Study #47) m. 7 The chord should not have a “natural” on the F (i.e., it should be F# which is already in the key signature).
- p. 54 (Study #48) m. 4 Last dotted-quarter-note chord is missing three roll slashes in the left hand (i.e. notes on lower staff).
- p. 54 (Study #48) m. 8 Last dotted-quarter-note chord Top note should be C-flat (instead of C). (The A-flat IS correct.)
- p. 55 (Study #49) At the beginning, instead of “2nd time,” it should say: “After D.C.:
- p. 55 (Study #49) At the end, it should say: “(play accents and/or staccatos as dead strokes)” That instruction should begin directly beneath the “dim”.
- p. 56 (Study #50) Tempo marking should be “half = ca. 56” (i.e. add “ca.”)
- p. 90 (Solfegietto) 3rd line, 1st bar The sticking after the high B should be: “2” below the F, followed by “3” above the D.
- p. 93, ending There are six Es (on top staff). Delete the tie between the 2nd and 3rd Es; and the 4th and 5th Es (so that the Es following the As will be re-attacked).
- p. 94 This should be a blank page. (This music is redundant with that on pg. 95.)
- p. 114 (Morning Glory, 1st pg.) bottom line, 2nd bar The chord on beat 2 should be (from the top down): B-flat (as is), B-flat (instead of A-natural), E-flat (as is), G-flat (instead of F).
- p. 115 (Morning Glory, 2nd pg.) m. 3 last note on top staff (dotted-quarter D) should be D-flat.
- p. 115 (Morning Glory, 2nd pg.) 3rd bar from end There should be an a tempo over the chord on the last eighth note (that’s tied across to a quarter note).
